

Leicester Pétanque Club

Disciplinary Procedure

General

Disciplinary matters, applying to all matters of Leicester Pétanque Club. (Further referred to as the Club), will be dealt with by the Elected Officers of the Club in the first instance and if necessary and if appointed, a Disciplinary Committee. If any members of the Elected officers of the club are involved in any allegation, then they may not take part in any disciplinary committee. All members, guests and visitors of the Club agree to fully comply with the club's code of conduct and specific codes of conduct for their role and be bound by its terms as under noted.

Disciplinary action against Club members, guests and visitors including expulsion without notice, may be taken for offences of misconduct or breach of club's rules. However, it is recognised and accepted that every member, guest or visitor

- Has the right to expect fair and consistent treatment
- Has the right to adequate notice from the Club
- Has the right to appeal against the Club Secretary's judgement or Disciplinary Committee's decision in all disciplinary matters.
- Has the right to representation
- No member, guest or visitor will be expelled for the first breach of Club's rules except in cases of "gross misconduct". However, all disciplinary actions taken by the club will be duly recorded and placed on file for reference at a future date.

1. Offences Leading to Disciplinary Action

The under noted actions by members, guests or visitors may be interpreted by the Executive Committee to fall within this Code. However, the lists are not to be considered as fully inclusive or covering all possible offences.

"Misconduct" is the carrying out of an offence considered to be of a minor nature (unless frequently repeated) and will normally incur a written warning from the Elected Officers together with a demand for full and appropriate corrective action. Examples of offences that may be considered misconduct include: -

- Discourteous, crude or offensive behaviour at games, training session or organised Club event.
- Conduct of an unsafe nature
- Offensive disregard for equipment or property
- Refusal to carry out reasonable instructions issued by event officials or organisers
- Failure to comply with or adhere to the relevant code of conduct for their position within the club
- Any other actions of similar gravity to the above, at the discretion of the Elected Officers.

Repetition of the above offences or failure to comply with any demands made in writing by the Elected Officers may result in further action by the Elected Officers involving a disciplinary hearing.

“Serious Misconduct” is the carrying out of an offence of such gravity that in the opinion of the Elected Officers it warrants a Leicester Pétanque Club disciplinary hearing. Examples of offences, which may be considered as serious misconduct include: -

- Misconduct offences if especially grave or repeated
- Deliberate or consistent breaches of club rules
- Any attempt to achieve gains or advantage over others by unfair or unscrupulous means
- Theft or misappropriation
- Use of threatening or abusive behaviour
- Participating in the sport whilst under the influence of drugs or alcohol
- Malicious interference with equipment or property
- Disregard for one’s own or other people’s safety
- Any other action, which in the opinion of the Club Officers may bring the sport or Leicester Pétanque Club into disrepute, or which left unpunished, may result in the detriment of the Club or its members.

“Gross Misconduct” is action of such seriousness that the Elected Officers will require the immediate expulsion of the offender from the club. The Elected Officers may by means of an executive decision summarily expel such an offender without invoking a disciplinary hearing. The expelled member, guest or visitor will have the right to a disciplinary hearing as soon as this can be arranged but will remain expelled until and unless such a hearing overturns the executive decision. Examples of gross misconduct are:-

- Physical violence of assault towards other persons at a Club event or related activity, including serious threatening, intimidating or forceful behaviour
- Reckless disregard of safety and basic safety rules
- Being convicted of criminal offences involving physical violence or abuse
- Other acts that are considered to be of an extremely serious nature perpetrated against the Club, its members or any other party.

Child Protection – if the matter relates to a child protection issue follow the child protection procedures for dealing with a complaint, then follow disciplinary procedure after outcome has been reached. If in doubt contact the local social services duty team for advice on how to deal with the complaint and the offender.

2. Disciplinary Procedure

On receipt of a written complaint from a member, another team within the sport, the governing body, the league/match organisers or any other party, the Elected Officers with advice from a Legal Advisor should they so wish, will decide whether the complaint falls within the scope of this disciplinary code. If in their opinion it does, then the Elected Officers will decide as to the type of offence as per section 1 above.

If the offence is considered to be one of simple misconduct, the Club Secretary will write to the offender with a formal written warning including the demand for an apology or other corrective action the Elected Officers may deem appropriate. The Elected Officers will also attempt to obtain approval for their action from the complainant.

If the Elected officers deem the complaint was instigated in a vexatious manner, the individual bringing the complaint forward will be subject to the same sanctions had the complaint been found to be valid.

A disciplinary file will be opened by the Elected Officers in which will be placed copies and records of the original complaint, together with the written warning and any other correspondence.

The action outlined above will normally finalise the process unless any of the parties involved object strongly to the Elected Officers decision in which case they may appeal directly to the Executive Committee for a final decision.

Should the complaint be considered by the Elected Officers as one of serious misconduct, then the following procedure will be implemented: -

- The Elected Officers will appoint an Investigating Officer who will research evidence presented and, if possible, will obtain further written evidence, witness statements, etc.
- If necessary, the Investigating Officer will consult all relevant witnesses for supportive evidence
- Advise complainant that if a disciplinary hearing is called, then the complainant and all relevant witnesses will be obliged to attend and give evidence. (Non-attendance at a hearing will only be allowed in extenuating circumstances, i.e. Ill-health, threat of violence or intimidation etc). In such circumstances/instances a sworn declaration must be submitted to the Executive Committee in writing or by the witness' recognised email address.
- Contact the member, guest or visitor subject of the complaint to advise of the official complaint and request them to submit a written statement of events
- In cases of disputes of a personal nature, the Elected Officers will attempt to resolve the situation amicably and to the mutual satisfaction of the parties concerned
- If settlement cannot be agreed between the parties, or if the offence merits it, then a disciplinary hearing will be arranged as soon as possible
- Contact the Club's Legal Advisor if required and supply copies of all evidence
- Notify all parties as to the hearing date and ensure the parties have all relevant copies of paperwork in good time prior to the hearing, copies to be sent by electronic means.
